

Case of XYZ Company

Situation faced By Company

- The employee who has joined the company for less than 80 days and has not been performing well since she joined.
- During this period she is found pregnant and who is still on probation period.
- Management is not happy with her performance and had asked human resource manager to retrench her on the basis of her performance.
- Please suggest the HR manager how he/she will going to deal with this situation?

KEY WORD

Probation -Probation is the duration (usually 3 - 6 months) for an employee for which he will remain under supervision of the company for his performance and work culture. In this duration if his performance is not as expected and promising, the company may not approve his contract for further processing and he maybe asked to leave the organization (the worst scenario).

Maternity – The period during pregnancy and shortly after childbirth.
