

Project work for course Gender, Human Rights and Ethics - CUTM 1014 (2-0-1)

The project work is for 1 credit. Students will do the project in groups (which will be decided by the teacher on the basis of discipline/branch).

The project is based on cases taken from – Good Practices in Gender Mainstreaming: Case Studies from India, 2008 (It is there in the courseware - <http://courseware.cutm.ac.in/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Good-Practices-for-Gender-Mainstreaming.pdf>)

Gender Project

Each group will be given one case to read and write 4 pages (1.5 line spacing, Times Roman 12) on the following:

- 1) Problem and Issues in the case on gender mainstreaming
- 2) Challenges
- 3) What interventions were made by the organisation
- 4) Lessons Learnt

Human Rights Project

The same groups will work together for the project.

What you have to write? (you will get a lot of material in the net; Also look at the slides taught in the class)

- Why is the topic given to you is a human rights issue
- In India, why this is important?
- What should be done to address this type of human rights?

One page write up 1.5 line spacing, Times Roman 12 on one topic assigned to you by the faculty.

Note: No bullet points or PPT allowed. No cut and paste allowed. The student has to write in her/his words, failing which they will be marked Zero.

Deadline for submission: 29 Jan 2021

SEC A students will send to – vc@cutm.ac.in

SEC B students will send to – smita.mishra@cutm.ac.in

