The buying method of organization and persons become different. organization makes certain policy for buying and buys goods according to the policy. Buying through quotation, buying through tender, buying through contract are the major buying policies organizations.

Organizational Buying Process

What is organizational buying process

Organizational buying has certain process. The following figure shows organizational buying process. There are eight stages. An organization may not go through all of these stages as following or it may change some of them. This depends on buying quantity, buying price, nature of goods, and buying frequency.

Steps in Organizational Buying Process

Need Recognition

Organizational buying process starts from need recognition. In an organization, a certain person recognizes need of certain goods and after buying the needed goods, need is fulfilled.

Need Description

After the need is recognized, the buyers should describe need. This task is completed in the second stage of organizational buying process.

Product Specification

The task of preparing specific description of goods is the third stage of organizational buying process.

Supplier Search

At this stage of organizational buying process, the buyer searches proper suppliers or sellers.

Proposal Solicitation

Proposal solicitation is the fifth stage of organizational buying process. At this stage, buyer calls best suppliers for submitting proposal.

Supplier Selection

At the sixth stage of organizational buying process, buyers assess the proposal and select one or more suppliers.

Purchase & Post Purchase

Order Routine Specification

After the best suppliers have been selected, the buyer prepares final order. In this order, all the matters such as attribute of goods, quantity, specification, time for supply, warranty, method of payment, service after sale etc. should be clearly mentioned.
