CASE STUDIES:

1. Action against a self-styled baba who advertises offering "magic treatment" to patients.

The division bench of Acting Chief Justice AK Sikri and Justice RS Endlaw sought response from the governments by and asked petitioner AK Jain to make city-based Nirmal Baba a party in the case. The petitioner alleged that Nirmal Baba(Nirmaljit Singh Nirula) had been advertising in different electronic and print media claiming to offer "magical treatment" while claiming himself to be a "representative of god".

The petitioner sought a ban on all the advertisements by the Baba, saying that such publicity was contrary to the provisions of the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954.

"The common man is being misled by the self-styled Nirmal Baba under the belief that the problems of a particular person will be solved with his blessings...the baba is spending lakhs of rupees on his advertisements and has earned more than Rs.200 crores within a few years in Delhi," the petition said.

MD of Kunnath Pharmaceuticals convicted for violation of Magic Remedies Act

Peethaambaran Kunnathoor, Chennai

The Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate Court (EO) at Ernakulum in Kerala convicted the Proprietor and Licencee of 'Musli Power Xtra', a herbal aphrodisiac, manufactured by Kunnath Pharmaceuticals in Kerala for violation of provisions of Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisement) Act, 1954.

The Court has imposed a penalty of Rs.50,000 and also imposed jail sentence of four months on the Proprietor, KC Abraham. In default of payment of the amount, Abraham will have to undergo rigorous imprisonment of a period of three months more, the judgement says.

The case against the company was charged by the Ernakulum zonal office of the Department of Ayurveda Drugs Control, Government of Kerala in 2009.

The complainant, Dr RY John, then Ayurveda drugs controller at the zone, alleged that the company had committed offence punishable under section 7 of DMROA Act.

- In September 2009, the company had given advertisement in a leading magazine violating the provisions of the Act. The advertisement stated that the product cured infertility by enhancing sexual capability and fertility. The drug inspector argued in the court that the advertisement was in contravention of the provisions of Section 3 (b) of the Act and item number 48 of the Schedule of the Act.

- About the violation case, drug inspector John said ‘Musli Power Xtra’ manufactured by Kunnath Pharmaceuticals is a good Ayurvedic product, but the case was taken for giving publicity violating DMROA Act. The Drugs & Magic Remedies (objectionable advertisement) Act clearly specifies the prohibition of advertisement for certain drugs, especially in the category of drugs described as aphrodisiac.

- He said the company, through advertisement, was claiming that the product could treat infertility in both men and women. The product is formulated from Safed Musli (chlorophytum borivilianum) known as Indian herbal aphrodisiac.

➤ Consumer Education and Research society, Ahmedabad, brought to notice of regulatory authority in Gujarat, sale and promotion of certain health gadgets by Conybio Health Care, in violation of Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act. Company was found promoting and distributing sun shade to cure from migraine and sun stroke, socks for acidity, pillow covers for spondylitis, palm guards for Parkinson's disease, eye-shade for sinusitis, T-shirts for high or, low blood pressure, bed sheets for paralysis strokes.

When the regulator asked the company to produce scientific evidence to support the effect of infrared rays, which it claimed to be present in the products, the company said it had never undertaken such studies by any recognized Indian Misleading Advertisements and Consumers Institute. Subsequently, the regulator prohibited the sale and promotion of the products.
