

CAUSES OF CRIME

CRIME SCENE DO NOT CROSS

CRIME

- Crime is an unlawful act punishable by a state or other authority.

(or)

- A violation of law

Causes of crime

- TRADITIONAL CAUSES
 - SOCIOLOGICAL CAUSES
 - PSYCHOLOGICAL CAUSES
 - POLITICAL CAUSES
 - ECONOMIC CAUSES
-

TRADITIONAL CAUSES

THESE FACTORS LEAD TO TRADITIONAL CRIMES SUCH AS THEFT,
DACOITY,
RAPE, HURT,
ROBBERY ETC

SEX LUST

PROPERTY

GREED

JEALOUSY

MONEY GRAB

PUBLICITY

BAD HABIT

SOCIOLOGICAL CAUSES

Sociological approaches suggests crime is shaped by factors external to the individual

(or)

social conditions that affect human behaviour.

Bad company

Ignorance

Parents conflict

Broken home

Overpopulation

PSYCHOLOGICAL CAUSES

Psychological factors include individual level processes that influence mental status of a person.

Aggression,
Violence, revenge

Media

Mental illness

Drug addict

POLITICAL CAUSES

These factors lead to political crimes.

Bribery

- Act of giving money or assets to a political figure in exchange for that person to vote or speak in favour.

Treason

- When a person does something to deliberately betray the country.

Sedition

- Process of getting a group of people to create a revolution against their own government

Theft

- A political figure stealing money from the government or any groups and activists

Perjury

- Act of will fully giving false statement or testimony after giving an oath

ECONOMIC CAUSES

Economic crimes are also financial crimes, refers to illegal acts committed by an individual or a group of individual to obtain a financial or professional advantage.

Poverty

Unemployment

Less resources

Ill literacy

Parental neglect

SOME OTHER CAUSES OF CRIME

- CULTURE
- RELIGION
- RACE
- GENDER
- ETHNICITY
- BEGGING
- DRUNKENNESS

ANY QUESTIONS?

A red pushpin is pinned to the top center of a white sticky note. The sticky note is slightly curled at the corners and is placed on a large orange circular background. The text 'THANK YOU' is written in a bold, black, hand-drawn font on the sticky note.

THANK YOU