SUPPORT THE HATE CRIME VICTIMS

- As a victim of a hate crime or incident you may find it helpful to speak to someone about your experience . There are a range of support services available that can help you deal with the impact of the crime.
- The regional advocacy service for victims of hate crime can help support you during the police investigation .
- They can also help you to contact the police if you are feeling vulnerable or unsure.

IF YOU GOT ATTACKED....

- You must report the hate incident or incidents to the police to be eligible for support.
- When an incident is confirmed by the police minimum repairs may be carried out to secure the property if requested there will be a follow up visit by a local police officer who can recommend work to be carried out by the housing executive to repair the property and improve existing security.
