

METABOLISM

Mechanism by which a drug interacts with and is processed by the body.

Process by which a drug is converted by the liver to inactive compounds (deactivated) through a series of chemical reactions. Also called biotransformation

Metabolism

First Pass Metabolism Occurs Primarily in the Liver and Gut

