

Why Networking Tools ?

- The It Sector Is Now in a Huge Need for Qualified and Experienced Networking and Security Professionals.
- Large and Medium-sized Firms Are Now Widening Their It Infrastructure, Which in Turn Also Demands High Security to Prevent Data Theft.
- The Network consists the number of computers that are linked to information shared devices like printers & CDs, allow electronic communications or exchange files.

What We Do Network Engineer

- Supervise security system of a company.
- Makes sure all systems function in good condition.
- Link all computers with central computer.
- Ensure all files & programs are accessible from all computer.
- Link computers to machines like printers, telephones, fax machines and others.
- Involve into communication device management.
- Develop, install, update and maintain all networks associated

Networking Tools

- Response Time Monitor
- interface Monitor
- Memory Monitor
- Trace The Route Of A Network Communication

Networking Courses @ Golars Networks

Latest Courses

- CCNA Routing and Switching Certification
- Networking Tools
- Juniper Certification Training
- MCSE 7 Training
- Linux Training
- MCSE Training
- Desktop Hardware & Networking
- Certified Ethical Hacker Training

Latest Courses

- CRT Training
- CCSA Check Point Training
- CCIE Training
- CCNP Security Training
- CCIE security training
- CISCO ASA Firewall Training
- CWNA Training
- F5 Load Balancer Training
- CCNA Security Training
- CCNA Data Center training

Job Roles of Candidates with Networking Training

Roles

- IT Auditor
- Penetration testers
- Chief Information Security Officers

Roles

- Network Administrators / Engineers
- Incident Response Handlers