

The process of drug absorption

- Absorption is the transfer of a drug from its site of administration to the blood stream
- The rate and efficiency of absorption depend on the route of administration
- For IV administration, absorption is complete as the total dose reaches the systemic circulation
- Other routes result in partial absorption and thus lower bioavailability

